On Sunday, April 30, 2017 at approximately 2:30 in the afternoon, John Kinn was riding his bicycle westbound on 3500 south in the outside lane. At approximately 5504 west, a vehicle struck Kinn from behind and fled the scene. Kinn was critically injured, and despite life-saving efforts, died at the scene. The suspect abandoned the vehicle in a parking lot at approximately 3450 South 5600 West and fled on foot. A containment was set up, but the suspect was not located.

Subsequent investigation identified the suspect as 32 year old Dylon S. Cooke, a Salt Lake City resident. Investigators have not been able to locate Cooke. We ask anyone with information as to Cooke's whereabouts to please contact West Valley City Police at 801-840-4000.

Dylon S. Cooke is a 32 year old black male, 6'0" to 6'2" and approximately 200 pounds. Cooke has black hair, which at the time of the incident, was worn in medium length dreadlocks which were tied back into a ponytail.
